Today, North America is short 100,000 drivers.

By 2029, that number will increase to 167,000 – all while the need to move freight grows by 35% by 2029.

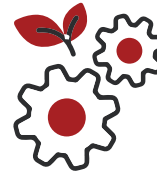

There's a place for you in the trucking industry, excellent benefits and advantages await!

Trucking Lifestyle

As a truck driver, your truck is your office where you can drive long haul runs to see the entire country, local routes to stay in your community, or regional runs that keep you near your home state. As essential workers, truckers make a difference nationwide because 70% of all products are brought by a truck!

Technology & Environment

Today's trucks have all the conveniences of home with cozy sleeper cabs, built-in refrigerators, and other amenities to keep you comfortable and safe on the road. In addition, the latest technology has semi-trucks more environmentally friendly than ever before with specific attention given to reducing the amount of carbon emissions.

Pay & Benefits

Average truck driver base pay = $57,985 per year – and that's before all the bonuses and extras most trucking companies provide. Many carriers hire and train brand new truck drivers with starting pay around $29/hour while top earners make $38/hour or $80,000 per year. You can also lease-to-own your own truck and be your own boss! Owner operators earn up to $200,000 or more per year. Remember, you'll also get paid holidays, vacation time, and other perks!
